

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a vertical crease down the center. A small, dark, irregular mark is visible near the top center. The left edge of the page is slightly darker, suggesting it is part of a bound volume.

This image shows a vertical strip of aged, yellowed paper. The paper has a textured, slightly mottled appearance with some darker spots and a prominent dark, irregular border along the left edge, possibly indicating a binding or a fold. The overall color is a warm, off-white or light beige.
